

Who is telling this story?

Anchor text: "The Seat by the Window"

Today you will:

- Name the narrator.
- Tell first person from third person.
- Prove it with words from the story.

QUICK-WRITE • 4 MINUTES

Two sides of one moment

Think of a time someone got the wrong idea about something you did.

- What did they think was happening?
- What was really happening?

Write for 4 minutes. Leave out real names. You will not have to share.

First person or third person?

First person

The narrator is in the story.

Clue words: I, me, my, we

"I waved, but he went back to his notebook."

Third person

The narrator is outside the story.

Clue words: he, she, they, names

"Mara waved, but Theo went back to his notebook."

Ask: Who is talking? What can that person know?

PARTNER TASK • 15 MINUTES

The Wednesday scene

Reread the Wednesday scene: the cup of water and "Are you mad at me?"

1. Find two clue words that show who is telling the story.
2. Write one thing Mara sees.
3. Write what Mara thinks it means.
4. Talk it over: what might Theo be thinking?

Be ready to share one clue with the class.

EXIT TICKET • 5 MINUTES

Show what you know

1. Who is the narrator of "The Seat by the Window"?
2. Is the story told in first person or third person?
3. Copy one sentence from the story that proves it.